DUISBURG
am Rhein

DUISBURG – THE CITY ON THE WATER

One of the cities of Germany with the most water. With numerous lakes and canals. Situated directly on the River Rhine and River Ruhr. With some 650 bridges to boast in the municipal area - more bridges than in Venice or St. Petersburg. And the largest inland port in the world.

Quality of life, recuperation, sport

The city so characterised by the water extends its invitation: To take a saunter along the banks of the restructured Inner Harbour, the popular destination for an outing, with its restaurants and beer gardens. To recuperate and relax on the idyllic Sechs-Seen-Platte. For water sports: From sailing, water skiing and canoeing at the Sportpark Duisburg - the venue for many international championships - to diving in the gasometer at the Landschaftspark Duisburg-Nord, with a spectacular underwater world.

- 1 Marina at the Inner Harbour
- 2 Sechs-Seen-Platte in the south of Duisburg
- 3 H2-Office with catering at the Inner Harbour
